

A Sustainable 'Leaning-In' Model for Preventing Domestic and Intimate Partner Violence – 'Operation Faoiseamh'

Detective Chief Superintendent Declan Daly

28th February 2020 – 1st report of Covid in Ireland

From that point on - all our lives changed

Lock-down' or "lock-in"

Operation Faoiseamh

The Problem Identified

Lockdown – victim and Offender closer contact, for longer.

 Added pressures, children, alcohol at home, work pressures

The "Pressure Pot"

Drivers – Op Faoiseamh

The International Covid experience

Conscious the potential impact of lockdown

Proactive approach due to the "behind closed doors" aspect of domestic abuse.

Operation Faoiseamh

> A Crisis Management Response.

Proactive response designed for victims Domestic Abuse during COVID

Proactively Protecting lives

Operation Faoiseamh

> 3 Phases - launched on the 1st April 2020

four key pillars:
 A media campaign
 Call-backs within 7 days
 Victim Engagement
 Breach of Domestic Abuse Court Orders

Media Campaign

Garda Info @gardainfo

Our response to Domestic Abuse remains steadfast. If you're a victim of abuse or you know of a family member or friend who is a victim of abuse, this is important to us. If you require urgent assistance or support, call 999 or 112. #keepingpeoplesafe #16days2020 #16daysofactivism pic.twitter.com/szkMGYiEUx

Garda Info @gardainfo

An Garda Síochána continues to treat all instances of Domestic Abuse as a priority call. We wish to re-enforce the reassurance to victims that Domestic Abuse incidents including coercive control continue to receive the highest priority response for service #16daysofactivism pic.twitter.com/LiXSPPvfLm

Garda Info @gardainfo

Operation Faoiseamh means if you are too afraid to pick up the phone, Gardaí are calling you to ensure you are safe. The vulnerable and victims of abuse continue to receive the highest priority response from An Garda Síochána. #keepingpeoplesafe #16days2020 #16daysofactivism pic.twitter.com/EoscDyFz4L

Victim Engagement

"Are you Ok", "are you safe", "do you need our help".

Fear & Reluctance to report

Faoiseamh took that decision from the victim

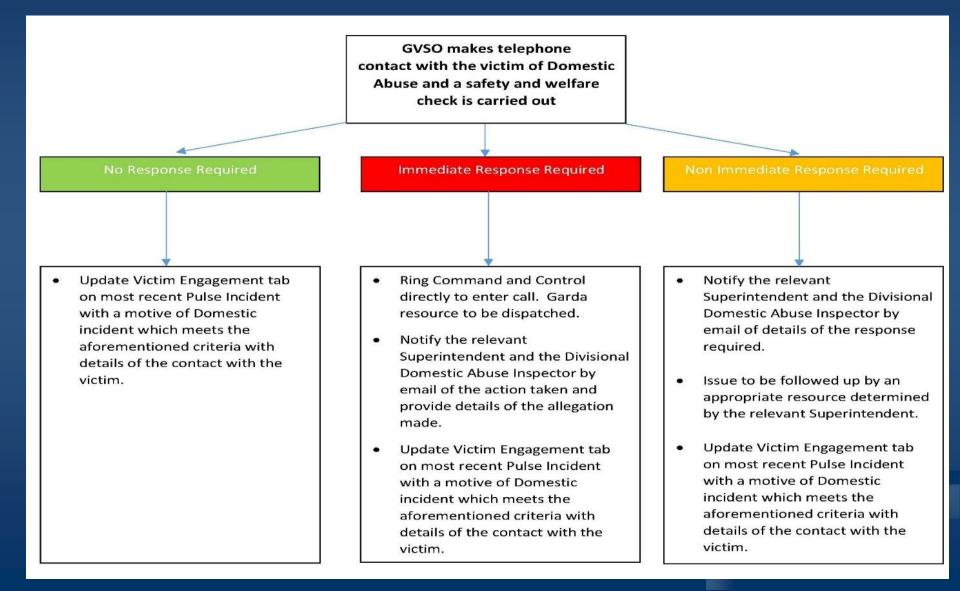

Breach of Domestic Abuse Court Orders

Prosecution of Offenders

 Ensuring the protection of victims through the investigation and detection for breach of Domestic Violence Act Court orders.

3 separate operations leading to arrests for breach of order offences

Traffic Light System

Case Studies

victims of domestic abuse Contacted – discussed safeguarding – welfare check – is everything ok – Do you need help.

A. Mary
B. Nadia
C. Susan

Outcomes

- 16% increase in calls for service
- 40,000 contacts and attempted contacts
- 24% increase in prosecution of DV offenders
- 7645 charges preferred for DV related crimes
- 25% increase in prosecutions of breach of DV Order
- > High level of Public & Victim reassurance
- > A Much safer community

Op Faoiseamh- New Thinking

Out with the Old-thinking and in with the New thinking.

Proactivity
Strong Victim engagement
Targeted response to offenders
Public reassurance

Challenges v Opportunity

In moving forward with Operation Faoiseamh there are;

Challenges, and Opportunities

Into the Future

Safety of the victim – could `cold calling' add to the dangers

Proactive Approach is the Key Difference

Be brave in decision making